3. Health insurance is mandatory at CMU, and it is recommended that the visiting scholars start to look out for options with some time ahead. According to the OIE page, J-1 Exchange Visitors may purchase health insurance that meets the minimum standards required by CMU directly from University Health Services by emailing shinsure@andrew.cmu.edu. ALL J-1 Exchange Visitors must read, sign and submit OIE’s J-1 Scholar Health Insurance Agreement to verify that they will comply with the required federal regulations regarding health insurance. This insurance may only be purchased during the first 30 days of the scholar’s appointment at Carnegie Mellon University. The CMU Portugal Program will reimburse the health insurance, up to a reasonable amount.
4. House arrangements should be made by this time. The host at CMU, together with the CMU Portugal office @ CMU may be able to provide guidance on this matter. There are several housing options that are offered at a reduced CMU rate. There are also several boarding houses available. In order to access the CMU rate, researchers must state that they are visiting on behalf of CMU. Housing and other relevant information about life in Pittsburgh and at CMU is available in the online resources for CMU Portugal students.

\textsuperscript{5} The DS-2019 acknowledges that the University has invited you to visit the institution, has authorized the visit, and supports the application for J-1 status. The DS-2019 is not a visa and you cannot enter the U.S. with the DS-2019 alone; the DS 2019 works in partnership with the J-1 visa stamp in the passport.
1. The OIE will mail the DS-2019;
2. Upon reception of the of the DS-2019, you must:
   - Visit SEVIS’s website to register and pay the fee (more information here). Print out and keep the receipt.
